"WOMAN'S DAY"

On the Wheeling Street Cars was a Splendid Success

BUT FINANCIALLY NOT GOOD

HOWEVER, AS THAT OF LAST YEAR, WHEN THE SCHEME WAS INAUGURATED—THE CARS WERE NAMED IN HONOR OF HEROES AND VESSELS, AND WERE GAILY DECORATED—ALL CONNECTED WORKED HARD FOR "SWEET CHARITY."

Yesterday was "Woman's Day" on the Wheeling street cars, and a repetition of last year's features when the scheme was inaugurated, came to pass, though it is probable that the financial end of the success scored was not so great. This may be accounted for on account of there being more novelty attached to it last year.

It was given under the auspices of the Woman's Union Benevolent Society. The cars were operated by the Wheeling Railway Company's motormen, but the fares were collected by young ladies, over whom stately matrons maintained a strict yet kind chaperonage. The girls were neatly attired in white dresses, yachting caps of the same color, and wore appropriate badges. The chaperons wore little bows of tri-colored ribbon. This year's decorations of the cars far eclipsed those of last year, and the war with Spain was clearly brought home by the decorations.

Small American flags were profusely displayed at the sides and ends of the cars, and large streamers designated each car as honoring some one of America's present day heroes. There was a Doddridge car, named in honor of the Wheeling boy with Dewey, Ensign J. S. Doddridge; there was a Sampson car, a Hobson car, a Blakely car, manned by Linsly cadets, and then there were others, not excepting the Shirley-Harrison, which honored Secretary W. A. Shirley, of the street car company, and Colonel Sam B. Harrison, the chief promoter of the "Woman's Day" on the cars. Of course the gunboat "Dewey" was very much to the fore in the evening.

The conductors and chaperons were given their routes from the barns, at Forty-eighth street, and the Main street office of the company. The ladies were in charge from 8 o'clock in the morning until about 11 o'clock at night. And their work was no snap, but every one of them stuck to it like a man. A pleasant feature was the stop for refreshments at Ziegenfelter's ice cream parlors, on Market street, and this resort was greatly sought during the evening. More liberal patronage was received during the evening than in the daytime, and the illuminated trolley cars were greatly in demand. The gunboat "Dewey" was re-baptized for the occasion into "Manila," and was in charge of Admiral Sam B. Harrison, who made a great hit. The other cars didn't receive much more than the usual travel, a fact which was quite a disappointment. The ladies in charge worked hard for a profit on the right side of the ledger, but failed to do as well as last year, when the profits amounted to about $300.

YOUNG HORKHEIMER HURT.

Struck by a Pole and Knocked Off the Dewey Car Last Night.

Last night about 11 o'clock, Herbert Horkheimer, youngest son of Colonel Morris Horkheimer, was severely injured in a street car accident in upper Benwood. He was a passenger on the "Dewey" car, which had on board a party of young people making the round trip. The car was coming up the Jacob street extension in upper Benwood when the accident happened.

Young Horkheimer stepped onto the side-board of the car, evidently with the intention of occupying another seat. Just as he was swinging himself out on the side-board, he was struck by one of the many poles that line the track below the street car barns, very close to the track. He fell without a cry. As soon as possible the car was stopped, and the unconscious boy was picked up. He had received ugly cuts and bruises on the head, especially one on top of the head, at the right side, fully three inches long and at least half an inch deep.

In a few minutes he recovered consciousness, but was unable to stand, and was brought up town in the Haskins ambulance to his father's home on Chapline street, where medical attention was had. The entire extent of his injuries could not be learned last night, but it is said he is not seriously injured.

MEDICAL ASSOCIATION MEETING.

The Eclectic Medical Round Table held its regular meeting yesterday at the office of Dr. J. J. Burton, in Martin's Ferry, with a good attendance. Papers were read by the following members: Dr. J. J. Burton, "The New Baby, its Management and Treatment;" Dr. J. A. Monroe, of West Alexander, Pa., "The Silt Operation in Haemorrhoids;" Dr. Mary (Baron) Monroe, of Wheeling, "Curing Without an Anesthetic;" Dr. J. R. Manley, of Wheeling, "Tubercular Treatment and Management;" Dr. L. S. Riggs, of Wheeling, "Diphtheria and Treatment." Each paper was followed by discussion by the members. The next meeting is to be held at the office of Dr. L. S. Riggs, Wheeling, the first Thursday in September.

THE NEIGHBORS KICKED.

A dog belonging to Fred Nolte, the Sixth ward grocer, yesterday afternoon bit a boy named Dreer. As is customary in such cases, Officer Beno was called in to do execution with his rapid fire gun. The dead dog lay on Locust street all last night, much to the discomfort of the neighbors, who called on the authorities for the removal of the remains, but they will have to wait until the garbage man arrives this morning.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

Reunion committees meet this evening.

Janitor William Charnock, of the Hearne Tabernacle, yesterday swore out a warrant for Thomas Cassidy, charging him with stealing a shovel from the Tabernacle. Squire Rogers will give Cassidy a hearing to-day.

The Democratic county executive committee held a meeting last night and was in session until midnight, canvassing the returns of the primaries of last Saturday. The canvass of the votes did not change the result in any district.

The council committees on petitions and remonstrances and police will meet this evening at the city building. The former will hear testimony on the application of Gus Matthews for a liquor license at "The Clementine" stand in the upper Market square.

Yesterday afternoon warrants were sworn out against Murray Brothers, the contractors, for not placing a red light on building material in Market street at the site of the new Potts building, and for excavating under the sidewalk without a permit from the board of public works. Another warrant was served on William Hull, charged with not displaying a red light on a pile of building material at the corner of Twenty-seventh and Eoff streets, South Side.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Strangers in the City and Wheeling People Abroad.

Miss Nellie Gardner, of West Liberty, is visiting friends in the city.

William and Curtis Barth, of Wellsburg, were in the city yesterday.

T. H. Hammond and wife were Wellsburg visitors in the city Thursday.

E. G. Roberts, of Moundsville, was registered yesterday at the Windsor.

Miss Pauline Alleur, of Washington, D. C., is visiting friends on North Main street.

Miss Gussie Frank, of New Martinsville, yesterday registered at the Stamm.

S. George Jr., and M. L. Wells, of Wellsburg, yesterday registered at the McClure.

R. A. Goodael and wife, of Amos, are among the West Virginia arrivals at the Howell.

Major Harry E. Adams, chief clerk at the Windsor, left last night to spend his vacation at Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kline and son, Edwin, left Thursday, for Atlantic City, where they will spend the summer.

Ernest Trueman, Miss Mildred Trueman and Miss Birdie Scatterday, of the Island, left yesterday to visit relatives at Barnesville, Ohio.

In Clerk Robertson's Office.

Yesterday, in Clerk Robertson's office, marriage licenses were issued to the following:

John J. Buckley, aged twenty-three years, of Beverly, W. Va., and Maude M. Graves, aged twenty-one years, of Wheeling.

John Bowers, aged twenty-one years, and Lizzie Polley, aged twenty-one years, of Steubenville.

A power of attorney from the Cottonwood Oil & Gas Company to George E. Boyd, Jr., was recorded.

Real estate transfers were recorded as follows:

Deed, made July 6, 1898, by William Brakine, trustee, to Frederick Unruh; consideration $6,350; transfers north two-thirds of lot 10 in Chapline & Eoff's addition, being the James A. Flinn property on lower Market square.

Deed, made July 6, 1898, by William Kuhr to Martin Ruggaber; consideration $160; transfers lots 21 and 22 in Zane's orchard addition.

FOUR DAMAGE SUITS.

Declarations in four damage suits were filed yesterday in the circuit clerk's office. Jay Austin Gould, Marinda Gould and Francis P. Hungerman each enter suit against the city for $5,000 damages, caused by injuries received at an accident on Twenty-eighth street last spring, when a wagon slipped down an embankment onto the Terminal tracks, injuring the three who have entered suit.

Fred Auber entered suit for damages against the Wheeling and Citizens' railway companies on account of the falling of a pole on which the plaintiff was at work stringing wires.

Relief in Six Hours.

CLOTHING—D. GUNDLING & CO.

"Your Money Back"

IF YOU WANT IT.

This means: You come in, try on, get fitted and suited, and buy whatever you like; go home and change your mind—no matter what reason—your mother-in-law don't like em, for instance—come back for your money. We take our chances. What are they? Generally if you're properly fitted and suited you stick to your clothes; if not properly suited we don't want you to wear around a bad advertisement. Once in a while we lose a trifle. We gain a hundred times where we lose once. Gain what? and lose what? A sale. Because we put our customer's interest first. The firm that don't give satisfaction, don't dare guarantee satisfaction.
